

SCREENS

SCREENS are a Mediterranean post-punk trio hailing from Amsterdam /Tel-Aviv, blending hard-hitting riffs with traditional Mediterranean melodies.

Their debut album "MFRSM" has received praise from music publications worldwide and amassed a significant online following.

The album features raw, emotional lyrics and gritty guitar work that encapsulate the complexities of urban life.

Since forming in 2019, the band has established a dedicated following through relentless touring across Israel.

Known for their high-energy live performances and uncompromising standards, SCREENS deliver a unique and captivating experience.

The band's influences span from classic foundation-layers like The Cure, The Clash and Wire, to post-punk revivers like IDLES, The National, Parquet Courts and Protomartyr.

While maintaining the middle-eastern influences that adorned our music since the beginning.

This year Fall 2024 – SCREENS will release their 2nd Album.

SCREENS are: Avidan Ezra: Guitar & Vocals, Yuval Rozin: Bass, Omri Elazari: Drums

"You are hooked from the off by the piercing guitars and driving rhythm section, making you want to jump around in a mosh." Indie Midlands

"What a way to kick off a brand new album. Fast Factors has everything you could want in a rough and ready post-punk anthem." XUNEMAG

"Tune in line with acts such as METZ, Preoccupations, and IDLES. Reverb-heavy guitars, roaring vocals, and tireless percussion make for an adrenaline-pumping experience." Dusty Organ

No lulls or boring moments, just great artistry! You can really feel the love and emotion that went into it; it provided a real genuine moment". WE WRITE ABOUT MUSIC

"This song comes as a blow of lightning and thunder in a storm of voices and guitars that conveys the madness." Yossi Hersonski, Israel.
